County Assessor
Chas. F. Horner
Is Called After Long Illness

CHARLES F. HORNER.

Prominent in Administrative and Political Activities
For Years

Following an illness of several days County Assessor Charles F. Horner passed away today at his home, 912 Lakeshore avenue, at 12:30 o'clock.

He had held the office of county assessor since 1911, when he returned from the chairmanship of the board of supervisors, where he succeeded John Mitchell. He was one of the most prominent figures in politics in the southern end of the county and was mainly responsible for the late developments in his home district.

While county assessor he revolutionized the system of the office, putting it on a modern basis. He was known throughout the state for his work in readjusting the procedure in assessors' offices.

Horner was born in November,
1858, at Irvington, this county, where his father, the late W. Y.
Horner, was a pioneer settler. He was a graduate of the old Washington College, and began his career as a manager of a sugar agency. For many years he managed a plantation in Hawaii, where he took a prominent part in Island political affairs. In 1887 he was a member of the Hawaiian legislature.

He was elected to the Board of Supervisors, and served on the board for eleven years.

He resigned to take over the work of the assessor's office at the time Henry P. Dalton was removed. He was prominent in fraternal circles, a member of the Knights Templar, Elks, Odd Fellows, Woodmen of the World,
Knights of Pythias and Native Sons.

He was also a member of the Nite-Athenean Club of Oakland.

St. Paul's Joseph M. Kelley is stated for the office left vacant by the death of Horner, according to a well-defined rumor today. The appointment is in the hands of the Board of Supervisors.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Today there are three times as many persons in the United States drawing incomes of $1,

December 1, 1916. This fact was established by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Daniel C. Roper in his annual report, covering taxes on large incomes made public this afternoon.

Three hundred and seventy-

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 1.—Russian provinces are on the brink of an anti-Bolshevik revolt. Bolshevik commissaries are resigning, apprehensive of their own safety. Trotsky, Lenin and others of the Bolshevik ring in Petrograd are wildly striving by merciless persecution of elements opposed to them to reach a separate peace with Germany before the deluge. A separate peace would mean the beginning of a Russia-wide civil war.

Such was the story brought here today by a Minimalist courier direct from Petrograd.

He told the United Press that the Russian nation is rising to stamp out the Bolsheviks.

The Bolshevik commissaries—Nagin, Miltin, Tarn, Lunacharsky, Mrs. Kolak and others—have formally resigned in protest against excesses of the Maximilian government.

They assert, in view of the Bolshevik leaders' violations of life, of liberty and of freedom of the press and speech, the nation is being stung to fury.

RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR FIRED BY TROTSKY

PETROGRAD, Dec. 1—M. Maklakov, the Russian ambassador to France, has been declared dismissed from his post by Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik commissary for foreign affairs.

Shortl, after the Bolsheviks got in control of Petrograd it was reported that Siberia had declared her independence and had chosen former Czar Nicholas the ruler.

ENGLISH ARE AFRAID U.S. IS MISLED

LONDON, Dec. 1.—England fervently hopes America is not misled by the Marquis of Lansdowne's letter. Apprehension lest the viewpoint taken by the statesman be mistakenly adopted by a majority of Englishmen was forecast in the editorial comment today.

Publication of Lansdowne's views has created a bitter whirlwind of dispute. Supporters pro and con are both denouncing and supporting him in support of and against the former foreign minister's views. The anti-Lansdowne adherents insist the principles enumerated are utterly opposed to the Wilsonian viewpoint, while supporters of the "no knockout" idea declare it is the essence of the American President's policies.

Most of the press agreed with Senator Law today that publication of the letter was a "national misfortune."

SPEECH PUBLISHED.

Senator Law's speech denouncing Lansdowne's letter was prominently displayed by all newspapers, particularly emphasis being laid on the chancellor of the exchequer's declarations.

"The letter is based on an assumption—and a strange assumption—that because the Germans say they are ready to have a pact of nations and to talk about disarmament, therefore, peace is possible."

"We are told there has been a great change in German feeling. I believe there has grown up a considerable discontent in Germany with the present system, but what is its basis? It is a feeling that the military system is not giving expected results."

Senator Law continued emphasizing that peace now would merely mean continuance in power in Germany of the men who were responsible for the war; would mean that any pact of nations would be useless, since there would be no force to punish violators of the agreement, and that a decisive military victory for the allies plus the growing sentiment of discontent in Germany, was the only way in which the war could be ended.

SMARQUIS OF HANDSUP."

The Evening News, one of the Northcliffe papers, dubbed Lansdowne the "Marquis of Handsup" and bitterly denounced his message.

The Globe referred to the marquis' pronouncement as "a stab in the back" compelling him to Caillaux in France.

The Westminster Gazette believed that powerful interests were behind Lansdowne. The Star defended the letter as likely at least to cause discussion out of which might bring some concrete fact of value.

The Evening Standard likewise interpreted it not as a slogan of pacifism.

The Marquis of Lansdowne was interviewed by the Daily Express concerning his letter and said:

"I should like it known positively that the letter was entirely my own. I consulted nobody about it. An absurd idea has been spread that the letter was written by other people. I wish to deny that."

Lord Lansdowne declined to discuss the opportuneness of the letter or the possible effect in discouraging or concealing the peace and prospects of the war and added:

"I have nothing to add or retract and can hardly allow myself to be censured about it. The subject is necessarily too controversial."

CECIL'S OPINION.

Lord Robert Cecil, minister of blockade, in his weekly talk with the Associated Press, declared emphatically that the Marquis of Lansdowne was not speaking for any important body of opinion in England.

The letter holds first place in the editorial columns of the London morning newspapers, but with the exception of the radical Daily News, which approves it, and the moderate Daily Telegraph and the Manchester Guardian, which endorse it in part, it is denounced.

Insistence is general that Lansdowne could not have chosen a worse time to launch the letter than when Germany is disintegrating peace with the Leninists, the allied conference meeting in Paris, and enemy agents trying to induce the Italian army to abandon the fight.

'ESCAPE' FROM GERMANS PROVES TO BE ROMANCE

AMERICAN TRAINING CAMP IN FRANCE, Dec. 1 (by the Associated Press)—Headquarters got a thrill when word was brought in that an American soldier, captured by the Germans, had escaped and reached the American lines. The man told a remarkable story of what had happened to him and of what he had done.

It was soon discovered by officers, however, that the soldier was romancing and that he had never been in the hands of the Germans. It developed that he had got lost from his company back of the lines, had been unable to find it and had wandered around the country for several days. He determined that the best way to escape punishment was to tell the story of his fictitious capture and escape.

PIGEONS FOR WAR

Lieutenant-Colonel W. L. Clarke, commanding officer of the western department, announced today that the war department would amplify the pigeon section for use in connection with observation aeroplanes, balloons and dirigibles and that he would make an immediate survey in the western department of the number of racing, homing and carrier pigeons available for purchase by his division. Pigeon fanciers are requested to get in touch with Col. Clarke at the army headquarters in the Santa Fe building, San Francisco.

Kerensky Arrested by the Bolsheviks on Russian Soil

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 1.—Premier Kerensky of Russia has been arrested at Vladivostok by Bolshevik soldiers and imprisoned, according to a report from Haparanda today. Vladimir is 110 miles northeast of Moscow.

It was reported in Petrograd yesterday that Kerensky has fled to Finland, where he is now in hiding.

DAVIE CANDIDATE IN 1912 RECALL

from the day that the mayor took his chair. No team work exists in the council. The mayor is distrusted and at various times has been out of harmony with every member of that body. The council has no leader. The result is, we are accomplishing nothing, our future is being seriously injured and our government has become the JOKE of the Pacific coast. The mayor admitted this in a recent public speech.

He Has Insured Our Citizens:

In his public speeches Davie has called the "unfortunate" of our state hospitals "NUTS"; he has mocked at the personal deformity of a well-known citizen; he has called the Chamber of Commerce "A BUNCH OF CROOKS"; Lake Merritt, a "CESS-POOL"; and Oakland, "THE HOME OF THE BO."

The mayor sets the standard for the city. Is he standard or not?

"If so, vote for him and help to preserve it.

He Is a Private and Public Failure:

The mayor's public and private actions are and have been guided solely by the political compass. He has been in a tangle at an OPERA SINGER, a COAL DEALER, a FEAR-BOAT OPERATOR, a BOOK AGENT, a LAWYER, a REAL ESTATE SALESMAN, a BUTCHER, a MINING PROMOTER and a POLITICIAN. He is applying to the business the same methods that made failures of his businesses. Is he surprised that he has made a failure as mayor of Oakland?

He Is a Demagogue:

The mayor has spoken and acted on all sides of almost every big public question. He promised parks to the annex and voted against them. He promised street improvements to the annex and voted to divert the money appropriated for other uses. He caters to the masses and acts for the classes.

He Is Opposed to Civil Service:

The mayor voted to oust certain officials by changing the titles of their respective offices. The Superior Court held that if such an act were permitted it would destroy CIVIL SERVICE and place the city again in the grasp of the old-time political SPOIL SYSTEM.

He Is Building a Political Machine:

The mayor was elected with the pledge that he would destroy a political machine. He has sought to destroy it by building a bigger one—one owned and controlled by his "BOSS" and working for the mayor's continuance in office.

He Has Promoted Class Hatred:

So long as John L. Davie is mayor Oakland will be a city divided against itself. If we were united on progress we could accomplish America. With class hatred in the saddle our improvement is impossible. The mayor has enraged citizens against citizens, labor against capital, the poor against the rich and class against class. Does such conduct help to make Oakland a great city?

He Has Established a False Economy Tax Rate:

Low taxes are the oldest known "BAIT" used by the politicians to catch votes. Commissioner Edwards states that the few cents saved this year means a higher tax rate next year. It also costs the city a great deal of proper fire protection, shipping turned away from our ports, innocent citizens of the government and a stoppage of municipal progress. DO YOU WANT A PENN-WISE AND POUND-FOOLISH MAYOR?

He Has Driven Business Away:

Competent authority states that many big industries have refused to locate in our city solely because of the "politics" of our municipal government. Commissioner Morse says that at least $1,000,000 has been lost to this city during the last two months because Kauffman and Davis refused to appropriate $1,000 to deepen the outer harbor channel so that ships could land at our docks. This means a loss of more than $1,000,000 a year to the city and her wage earners.

He Seeks to Destroy Our Western Front:

Two propositions for the destruction of our western waterfront are now before the city council. One is a great public-owned and privately controlled harbor. The other is a privately owned and privately controlled ship building plant. The people have already voted for the great harbor. The mayor, however, is for a carpet-bagger.

Like Kauffman, the mayor is "A MAN FROM MEXICO." He owns no home among us—he pays no taxes in

Pro-Germans to Be Ousted, Says Vice-President

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—

"This war will be worth all it costs the United States. It will give us pure Americanism. Within a year we shall be able to weed out the pro-Germans in every community."

This statement was made this afternoon by Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall. The vice-president arrived in Washington today after a swing around the western circle.

Marshall declared in favor of "action to annul naturalization of disloyal Americans and confiscate their property to the government."

If the doctrines advocated by pacifists were applied in the United States, it would lead to scenes like those in Russia," he said.

means a great city. Seattle has 118 miles of available harbor frontage. San Francisco has only eight miles. The race for Pacific coast supremacy is now on. Unless Oakland's western waterfront is now developed for harbor purposes San Francisco bay is doomed to lose to Seattle. Mayor Davis terminated his vacation to vote for the shipbuilding plant before receiving the report of the city attorney. He Has Repudiated Our Just Obligations:

The city contracted in writing with ALERS BROS. to perform street work and dredging at an estimated cost of $156,500. Commissioner Morse asked for the money to fulfil this obligation. Kauffman and Davie refused it. The city is now liable for a suit for damages. Do you want a mayor who considers the city's solemn obligations only "A SCRAP OF PAPER?"

He Has Misrepresented Important Issues:

The mayor has deliberately misrepresented many important issues, but none more maliciously and glaringly than the liner harbor leases. He has called them "STEALS" and their owners "GRAFTERS AND ROBBERS." Here are the facts: The state sold the land fifty years ago. Private owners purchased it, paid good prices for it and believed their titles secure, a fact which was discovered. The city claimed the land. So did the owners. The dispute was settled by a public compromise. Such compromise was ratified by Governor Johnson and passed by the legislature. The transaction had wide publicity.

He Has Violated Our Laws:

The mayor has chosen to enforce our laws. They provide a fine of $200 or 30 days in jail for any person making a political speech in a public park. Our citizens were assembled at Lake Merritt to hear a concert. The mayor made a personal political speech to them. He was never fined—never in person. What would happen if a starving man should steal a loaf of bread?

He Has Advocated the Taking of Private Property Without Compensation:

The mayor has stated that he would take certain lands for public park purposes and force the private owners of such lands to pay for their public improvement. What would you say if you were the owner? Is that your standard of honesty?

He Is the Enemy of Labor:

He has voted against the union scale for machinists, carpenters and plasterers. His banners and his tax bills do not bear the union labels. He has voted against the right of the union to exist against him.

He Is the Enemy of Woman:

He has publicly declared that he would oppose a WOMAN'S WELFARE LEAGUE if every woman in Oakland should vote for it. He has voted, by his behavior, Y. M. C. A. with its headquarters in the mayor's rooms at the City Hall, to issue, under the title "Social Recall Edition," a vile sheet slandering the Y. M. C. A. and the PUBLIC WELFARE LEAGUE and the Y. M. C. A. This act should, in itself, be enough to determine the fate of every decent man and woman in Oakland. Can you name one thing the mayor has done for the women of Oakland?

He Is a Carpet-Bagger:

Like Kauffman, the mayor is "A MAN FROM MEXICO." He owns no home among us—he pays no taxes in

PRESIDENT MAY SETTLE DISPUTE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—

President Wilson may have to settle a dispute that bids fair to become serious between two of the biggest figures in the war administration.

Fleet Director Herbert C. Hoover and Fuel Director Harry A. Garfield have clashed. The trouble up to the present time is not admittedly serious.

In fact, both of them insist there is no trouble. But the fact remains that a condition has developed which may prove very troublesome to the administration. There is a shortage of both fuel and food throughout the United States. The fuel deficit is so great that Director Garfield secured a priority order from Priority Commission, which gives coal and fuel shipments and cars right of way.

After the order had been prepared it was held up by Hoover. The latter takes the position that foodstuffs are much more needed than fuel and that the fuel order would work hardship on the country.

In his protest against placing fuel ahead of food in transportation, Commissioner Hoover declared that the plow board today began consideration of the entire problem. It is hoped that an agreement can be reached which will satisfy both. If not, however, the fact will be presented to President Wilson, who will have to decide what shall be done.

CALIFORNIAN IS KILLED IN ACTION WITH CANADIANS

OTTAWA, Dec. 1.—The following American names appear in today's Canadian casualty list:

Killed in action—Ed Edwards, San Francisco, Cal.

J. Luster, Brooks, Minn.

R. A. Flock, South Branch, Colo.

SHOOTS WIFE; SELF.

CAMAS, Wash., Dec. 1.—Samuel C. Whittemore shot his wife and then killed himself.

OAKLAND. Can this status give him a sincere interest in our welfare?

He Is a Positive Menace to Oakland's Progress:

No city in America has greater natural opportunities than Oakland. Politics and a "COMIC OPERA GOVERNMENT" will never develop them. The mayor is the direct cause of our bad government. So long as he remains in office we will have friction. So long as we have friction we will lack progress. His presence in the mayor's chair is a direct injury to Oakland and to every voter in Oakland. If you want amusement keep him. If you want progress recall him. He Has Allowed the Y. M. C. A. to Be Accused of Treason:

Phil Reilly is the mayor's publicity manager. He now holds forth in the mayor's rooms at the City Hall. He recently issued a vile pamphlet in which he stated that the Y. M. C. A. may have furnished "LEAKS TO THE ENEMY." The Y. M. C. A. is a recognized arm of our service. That accusation is treason. The mayor has never denied Reilly. He has never driven him from his office.

He Is the Enemy of the Poor:

He has voted against the union scale for machinists, carpenters and plasterers. His banners and his tax bills do not bear the union labels. He has voted against the right of the union to exist against him.

He Is the Enemy of Woman:

principles hitherto announced to the world by the present rulers in Petrograd appear to be entirely acceptable as a basis for reorganization of affairs in the east—a reorganization which while fully taking into account the right of nations to determine their own destinies, is calculated permanently to safeguard the essential interests of the two great neighboring nations, Germany and Russia.

"I am profoundly satisfied that we shall be able to pursue this course in full agreement with our allies, and I take it, also, with the almost unanimous moral support of the representatives of the German people here assembled—a fact which will give our action necessary weight."

Publicity Given by The Tribune Is Appreciated

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The public schools need the loyal support and enthusiastic interest of the common people to whom they belong. More and more the newspapers and magazines of the country are printing articles on the new ideas in education and means of making the schools of greater service to the people. We of the schools of Oakland appreciate very much the publicity page in the magazine section of the OAKLAND TRIBUNE. The kids' letters are full of "pep" and bring more smiles than the funny page. They speak well, too, for the future of our city and in days of depression bring rays of optimism.

Sincerely yours,

TWELVE DIE IN FOOTBALL GAMES IN U.S.

The Pacific coast contributed one fatality to a list of twelve football victims during the past season, according to statistics made public by the Associated Press, today. George A. Blewett, of Los Angeles, 20 years old; a student at the University of California; died of a brain hemorrhage on October 8, two days after a freshman game.

Defenders of the popular college sport pointed to the fact that only one fatality occurred in the big universities and colleges, where the game is conducted under expert physical direction. All of the victims, with one exception, were either high school students or players, who, with little or no training, participated in semi-professional games. A majority of the cases showed that the players entered the game without proper knowledge of it and without proper physical condition for so rough a sport.

The open style of play, instead of the smashing game, which rapidly is being discarded, has eliminated much of the danger.

The list of victims, beside Blewett, follows:

LIST OF DEATHS.

Roscoe E. Battan, a Hastings, Neb., school student, 17 years old, who produced heart paralysis, which caused a total of $75,000 per year, in twenty-five leases for twenty-five acres, having a rent of $93 a month.

Charles C. Persiani, Jr., of Plattsburgh, Conn., 19 years old, a student at Pennsylvania military college, secured $4,000.25 for the Woolsey lease for the same period for but five acres on the same waterfront.

Elvin Anderson, a Trinidad, Colo., high school student, died Oct. 30 from an injury to his spine.

Roy Groves, a Wilsonville, Neb., high school student, 17 years old, died Nov. 15, from internal injuries.

Henry Henry, a Athens, Tex., high school student, 18 years old, died Oct. 13, from internal injuries sustained in a high school game.

Thomas Ryan, of Alvarado, Tex., died Nov. 13, of injuries received in a high school game played four days previously.

Henry Leidendecker, a Champaign, Ill., high school student, 17 years old, died Nov. 15, as a result of injuries received in a game played two weeks previously.

Harold A. Holtz, 17 years old, died in Indianapolis on Nov. 12 from injuries received in a game played a month previously.

F. F. Boyes, half-back on the Charleston, S. C., navy yard team, died Nov. 3 from concussion of the brain as the result of being tackled.

Ellis Hamilton of Detroit, 17 years old, died Nov. 26 of injuries received in a game played the previous day.

AKER'S COCOA HAS GREAT FOOD VALUE

THE food value of cocoa has been proven by centuries of use, and dietitians and physicians the world over are enthusiastic in their endorsements of it. It is said to contain more nourishment than beef, in a more readily assimilated form. The choice, however, should be a high-grade cocoa,—"Baker's" of course.

MONEY ROLLS IN AS K. OF C. DRIVE OPENS

The Catholic war work fund drive is on in earnest.

The first dollars rolled into the fund this morning.

W. K. Cole wrote out his investment of $500. The Providence Hospital subscribed $100. Dr. John F. Stavich contributed $50. Small individual subscriptions from all parts of the city's residential sections were received by the enthusiastic women workers.

The spirit of Christmas has entered into the spirit of the drive.

In East Oakland one of the women workers rang the doorbell. A sweet-faced old lady answered the call.

"I'm glad you have come," she said. "I was thinking of Christmas and the usual gifts. The family gifts we make. I've changed my plans this year. The ten dollars I had set aside for relatives and friends I want to give to you for the boys in the training camp and in the trenches."

Everywhere the workers find that the citizens are prepared to give to their utmost to the war work fund. The habit of giving has been established.

The appeal for funds for the Catholic war camp work at home and abroad has met instant response.

Alameda county's share is $50,000, including that of Richmond. The nation is asked for $5,000,000. This money is administered by the Knights of Columbus in establishing and extending the recreational centers open to all men of all creeds at all times without discrimination.

WOMEN ORGANIZE.
Last night the women met in Knights of Columbus hall in Thirteenth street, and organized their drive committee.

Alameda sent its delegation comprised of Mrs. T. G. Kearney, division commander; Mrs. Josie Wigland, Mrs. A. L. Mulvany, Miss Rebecca Rich, Mrs. Thomas Egan, Mrs. J. J. Tompkins. These women reported that Alameda had been distributed and workers established in every residential section of the city.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Nora Galvan, Mrs. J. J. Kearney and Miss Genevieve McKeever, division commanders, the women of the various parishes have taken charge of the drive in the residential districts.

Captains and lieutenants have been appointed as follows:

St. Andrew's parish, Mrs. Katherine Hennberry; Mrs. Jennie Leonard; St. Augustine's parish, Mrs. Wade Whilliams; Mrs. Joseph Coward; St. Anthony's parish, Mrs. Theresa Schmitt; St. Columba's parish, Mrs. William J. Gill; St. John's parish, Mrs. John Mallon; St. Louis' parish, Mrs. C. L. Delmar; St. Lawrence's parish, Mrs. J. J. McCarthy; St. Mary's parish, Mrs. James McAllister; St. Francis de Sales parish, Mrs. Pasquale Kisch; St. Elizabeth's parish, Mrs. V. J. Gill; St. Peter's parish, Mrs. Mary Doolan; St. Patrick's parish, Mrs. J. Champman; Mrs. J. Kearney has charge of St. Joseph's parish, Alameda, and Mrs. J. Giblin is in charge of the war work fund campaign in St. Joseph's parish, Berkeley.

Among the other active women volunteers who were present at last night's meeting were Mrs. F. X. Muller, Mrs. M. T. G. Rigney, Miss Mary Doyle, Miss Anna Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Rose Dignan, Mrs. Peter Cronin, Mrs. J. J. Cox.

Mrs. Russell Fittion will have general charge of the parish workers east of Lake Merritt, while Mrs. W. K. Cole will take charge of the campaign conducted by the women in the parishes west of Lake Merritt.

SUBSCRIBE AT ANY BANK.

Beginning Monday any bank in Oakland, Berkeley or Alameda will accept subscriptions to the Catholic war work fund. Frank Cerini of the Oakland Bank of Savings, treasurer of the Alameda county Catholic war work fund campaign committee, has made arrangements with all the banks to accept investments in the war work fund.

The tent at the corner of Fourteenth and San Pablo has also been requisitioned and subscriptions will be received there.

M. M. Roach, captain of one team of men workers, said:

"We're going over the top" for the largest contributions and the largest amount.

Headquarters for the drive have been established in Knights of Columbus Hall, 600 Thirteenth street.

From the pulpits of every Catholic church in the east bay district tomorrow morning will ring the clarion call of duty. The pastors will urge every member of their congregations to give liberally in the war work fund.

Pastors of other denominations will also be asked to voice an appeal to the fund, which is non-sectarian in character and placed at the disposal of all America's fighting men at home and abroad.

Archbishop Edward J. Hanna has sent out special letters requesting that a pulpit appeal be made.

HEARING DELAYED.

Hearing of charges preferred against Patrolman Michael Shannon by William McGuire following quarrels between the two men when they were handling the chain gang of prisoners, commenced before Commissioner Jackson late yesterday, has been continued until next Friday for further taking of testimony. Attorney Phil M. Carey appeared as counsel for Patrolman Shannon.

McGuire accused the policeman of permitting prisoners to escape from the gang, of allowing them to leave to purchase liquor and drugs, and charged that on several occasions the prisoners stole things in districts where they were at work.

Archbishop Edward J. Hanna has sent out special letters requesting that a pulpit appeal be made.

ASK SPUR TRACK

EMERYVILLE, Dec. 1.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company and the California, Arizona and Santa Fe Railway Company have filed with the Railroad Commission an application for authority to install a spur track at grade on Haven street to Park Avenue, just across from Hotel Hotel and Hotel streets. The Santa Fe says in the application that it will operate this spur under lease from the California company.

EGYPTIAN LECTURE.

The third lecture of a series on "Ancient Egypt" will be given at the University of California Museum of Anthropology at the Affiliated Colleges, San Francisco, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Associate Curator Gifford will discuss "The First Attempt at a Universal Religion." The lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon views.

Making a Soldier of Sugar

AS we have sent men abroad to fight for America—as we have sent money—as we have drafted steel, with other commodities, into fighting-service or enlisted wheat and other fighting-foods—so we must make a soldier of sugar.

Nutriment for the nations at war is as vital to the outcome as the powder that feeds the guns. A great nutrient in time of peace—in war a veritable sinew—sugar is now called upon to play a heroic part, to supply the peoples of our Allies—whose strength is ours.

To wrap up sugar in the American flag, so to speak, and put it into the fight becomes a duty of loyalty. It will be borne cheerfully by every industry, every dealer, and every individual it falls upon. Upon certain industries it falls heavily—and especially on the workers who derive their living from them. Yet the American civilian is in this war with the soldier. American business great and small, American capital from Wall Street to the remotest country bank, is with the Government every step of the way. The U. S. means Us. We, all of us, are in the fight with everything we have, for the sake of everything we cherish.

This company regards it a privilege to comply with the Government's request, made similarly to all manufacturers employing sugar in quantity, to reduce our output fifty per cent.

To the end of conservation we pledge our further efforts in every direction that opportunity may disclose, in manufacture as well as beyond the scope of our immediate interests; and in this effort generally we bespeak the co-operation of dealers and consumers everywhere.

CONGRESS IS PREPARING TO QUIZZ CHIEFS

BY UNITED PRESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Following an announcement from the White House that the President will deliver his message to Congress at 12:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, House and Senate leaders are making arrangements for a joint session. The message is not yet completed. Congressmen prodded to be without information as to the President's recommendations for legislation.

President Wilson believes Congress should confine itself almost entirely at the coming session to legislation for the prosecution of the war. He is expected to tell Congress so in his opening address. The address will be kept open until the last minute.

All is chaos in Congress over where to start the second war session. Never in recent years has there been so much uncertainty among members about what to tackle first on the legislative program. All returning Senators and Representatives opine that Congress will be in session indefinitely, perhaps almost continuously, for years, and "what's the use of hurry?" has become the slogan at the capital.

Usually the eve of Congress is the date that legislative program is carefully shaped and measures ready to be laid before both houses in their now-sacred session. Today, with a majority of the members of both houses back at their duties, every one was waiting to be led and watching the President's movements with anxious eyes.

Unless the President urges an immediate declaration of war against Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria, as many members wish him to do, there is a growing impression that little of importance will be accomplished by Congress before the first of the year. The opening weeks will be occupied with committee work and already a boom has been started for a two-weeks Christmas vacation.

QUESTIONS MANY.

Congress will meet primed to ask officials running the war a number of questions about war policies, war laws passed last session and future war measures. Congressmen arriving today stated their constituents asked the same questions of them.

They will also try to find out what steps have been taken to insure payment of the money loaned to Russia, why pneumonia and other ailments are prevalent among men in cantonments and about the Lansing-Ishii agreement in China.

These and the old issues of suffrage, prohibition, conservation, appropriations, taxes, censorship, freedom and war expenditures forebode a long session.

The "wealth conservation" forces are lining up against bond advocates on the expected drive for more war revenues. Prominent administration leaders are in favor of issuing additional bonds and avoiding further revenue legislation at this session.

The application of war taxes imposed in the last session still remain to be worked out by the internal revenue department, with legal classes over the excess profits section impending.

It appears certain that among appropriation measures will be relief for railroads. Government credits for the carriers and outright purchase of them of needed war equipment are under consideration in high legislative circles.

ITEMS IN PROSPECT.

Better lights are in prospect over the press clauses in the espionage and trading-with-the-enemy laws. A measure will be introduced to prevent barring of any publication from the mails except after a full hearing by a regular court. Some advocates of free press and free speech claim the post office department is given too broad judicial powers.

Slightly related was criticism today by a House member of the present censorship as giving pro-German rummagers a fertile field.

"The country's full of rummages," he said. "They are mostly wild and on their face, unbelievable. But people have heard so much about the censorship preventing publication of certain matters that they are ready to believe almost anything, particularly if they don't see it printed. Something ought to be done to make the censorship sensible."

The ten-year fight over the government's conservation policy will come to a head early in the approaching session. War-time demand for enormously increased production of coal, oil, gas and electric power makes utilization of national resources one of the biggest questions of the hour. Widely divergent views are held by members regarding the government leasing policy.

Senators Myers, Montana; Pittman, Nevada; Walsh, Montana; Shields, Tennessee, and Phelan, California, will introduce leasing bills. Representative Ferris, Oklahoma, will look after conservation measures in the House.

LAFOLLETTE CASE.

The special sub-committee designated to investigate the alleged disloyal efforts of Senator Robert M. LaFollette has made practically no headway although it was under instructions to report Monday. It is under the necessity of asking for an extension of time to complete its inquiry. Indications are that the LaFollette case may drag along for weeks.

The Newlands joint railroad investigating committee is going to renew its efforts to solve the transportation problems of the nation on Tuesday but it has no expectation of finishing its job for years. Aside from this there are no committee activities on the calendar for next week.

Politics is being talked behind closed doors and there is no open partisanship, although it may be expected within a few weeks.

The House Republicans are in confusion over their leadership because of the illness of James B. Mann and are casting about for a pilot. The choice lies between Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin and Representative Gillette of Massachusetts, although "Uncle Joe" Cannon will play a role of old-time importance on the Republican side.

Both sides are organized in the Senate. Senator Gallinger, the Republican leader, has fully recovered

De Saulles Case Ready For Jury Woman May Know Fate Tonight Doctors Testify on Her Sanity

MINNEOLA, Ia., Dec. 1.—Mrs. Blanca de Saulles, on trial here for the murder of her husband, John Longen de Saulles, probably will know her fate tonight. All indications this afternoon pointed to the case being given to the jury before 6 o'clock.

Witnesses for the state, appearing as the last witnesses, flatly contradicted the claim of experts for the defense that Mrs. de Saulles was not responsible when she shot and killed John L. de Saulles when he refused to make a settlement of their financial affairs.

They declared their examinations showed no trace of insanity, that she knew the nature of her act and knew that it was wrong.

ADJOURNMENT TAKEN.

Court adjourned until 3 o'clock immediately both sides had rested and the closing arguments were to be made this afternoon. District Attorney Weeks and Defense Counsel Uterhart said they would consume about an hour and a half each. The charge of Justice Manning to the jury is expected to take about forty-five minutes.

Mrs. de Saulles smiled faintly as the state closed and as Justice Manning remarked that the case would be with the jury this evening she turned and smiled at the men who will render the verdict.

The first hypothetical question was not as long as that of the defense and required only twenty-eight minutes to read. It reviewed the love letters Mrs. de Saulles had written to her husband and her actions immediately before and after the shooting.

Tatiana Romanoff Not Aboard Escape of Czar's Daughter Joke

At last the suspense is all over! Tatiana Romanoff did not come, after all, and no one will have to hear her sing, see her dance or read her fairy tales. This cheering news was brought to society folk of the bay district today, when the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru reached "a Pacific port" without the distinguished daughter of former Czar Nicholas Romanoff aboard.

Mrs. Margaret Russell, Philadelphian, Barron, Carver, Oakland, telephone, and dramatist, threw the local smart set into a fury of anticipation a week ago with her announcement that she was rushing across the continent to greet Tatiana, whom she had met during her recent sojourn in Russia. Everybody told everybody else what a perfectly lovely time everybody was going to have meeting a Grand Duchess who was coming to write fairy tales to add the Russian soliders.

POLICEMAN SHOT IN $13,000,000.000 ARM BY BURGLARS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Police man will have to authorize early in the session convening next Monday means of collecting from the American people between now and July 1 about $3,000,000,000. In addition to the $3,666,000,000 from Liberia bonds already authorized but yet to be issued, the amount to be collected of these war savings campaign and about three billion dollars from war taxes.

Most Congressional leaders believe the $3,000,000,000 balance must be provided principally by issue of bonds, and Secretary McAdoo has told members of Congress that he heartily favors this method. If this plan is finally adopted, the country probably will be called on to absorb two more big Liberty Bond issues between February 1 and July 1, aggregating more than $3,500,000,000.

Another big finance question which will receive the early attention of Congress is the continuance of loans to the Allies. If the present rate of extending credits to the Allies is continued, the $2,000,000,000 authorized credits will be exhausted by July 1 and Congress will have to decide whether to continue the loans after that time. Six billion dollars will be required for the fiscal year beginning next July 1. If the rate of a half billion dollars a month is kept up.

OPINION DIFFERS.

Wide difference of opinion exists in Congress over the question of whether the bulk of the five billion dollars should be raised by taxation or bond issues, but those advocating the issue of securities expect strong support from the administration.

Taxation advocates are expected to make a fight for establishment of new taxes on business lines, and for increase of income and excess profit rates. Under the present law, the estimated receipts from incomes is $1,200,000,000 and from excess profits $1,226,000,000.

Treasury officials and congressional leaders in charge of the finance program have no means of knowing at this time what success the war savings plan will meet, but most of them figure on receiving between $600,000,000 and $1,000,000,000 of the authorized two billion dollar total before July 1.

OTHER ISSUES.

A number of other issues of treasury certificates of indebtedness may be looked for. Senator McAdoo announced to-night, in anticipation of big tax collections next May and June, but these so-called tax certificates and also any which may be issued to prepare the way for future liberty loans probably will be redeemed before July 1, and consequently play only a minor part in the finance problems facing Congress.

SABINS DIVORCED

The divorce difficulties of the Elmwood Sabsins of Berkeley have been adjusted as the result of their agreement to stop fighting and allow the divorce action to take its course. Judge Koford promptly thereon granted a divorce to Sabins against his wife, Augusta E. Sabins, and allowed her the custody of the two children.

After Sabins had filed his action for divorce, in which he agreed that his wife should retain custody, he changed his mind and decided that he would fight for the right to control the children's education. The chairman of the Mrs. Sabins, who was then radically pro-German, and now stated that he did not want his children to be brought up as Germans.

The wife sought that application for custody and attorney developed so much that a hearing of the matter had to be postponed on account of the parents' hysteria. Afterward Sabins relented and allowed the children to remain with the mother. He will be required to maintain them.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—The Rev.

HISTORY IS INTERWOVEN WITH RITES

Justice Jones, who was one of the first officials to deal with Mrs. de Saulles following the shooting, was recalled by the state and said he regarded her as rational.

Countess Maud Salm, wife of Count Otto Salm of Austria, told of a visit to the fall the day following the shooting. She said Mrs. de Saulles told her day, "Just be careful of what is said, as there may be dictaphones."

RECEIVED BY ROYALTY.

Mrs. Anna Mooney, Baby Jack's nurse at The Box, told of Mrs. de Saulles' presentation to the Elmwood court, and said that the once wild and wayward wife, as a result of which the defense has claimed Mrs. de Saulles' mind was affected, Mrs. Mooney said the defendant went to a concert the night following. She was in bed for several days afterward.

Both De Saulles and Mrs. de Saulles said they were sorry they were not aboard the Lustitia, when word came of the sinking of the liner. Mrs. Mooney said the defendant went to a concert the night following. She was in bed for several days afterward.

The pioneers with their families and their wagon trains toiled over the Rocky mountains and down into the fertile valleys of the bay district to find their homes here and found a state, they found Don Luis Peralta, cattle rancher and land owner, in his hacienda near San Jose to greet them. Don Luis had come to California years before, a strapping corporal. He had aided in the work of founding the Presidio at San Francisco and the Mission of Santa Cruz.

LAND HIS REWARD.

In gratitude a generous government had bestowed upon him the whole of what is now Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, extending from the University of California's Strawberry Canon to the present boundary line of Alameda county on the south and west. There, following his marriage in February, 1784, to Senorita Maria Loretto Ivey, he took up his abode, and from that marriage sprang a race of sons and daughters, one of whom, which was Francisco Peralta, the father of Ludovina Peralta de Ivey.

Ludovina Peralta de Ivey was born at Santa Cruz eighty-nine years ago. She came to San Leandro during the early part of her life and had resided in the old Peralta home for the major portion of her life. She donated the site of the St. Louis Catholic church and school in Elmhurst and was famous throughout the county for her charities, her hospitable interests in the needy and her many acts of philanthropy. She was one of the heirs of the famous Peralta estate and her personal estate is still intact.

SURVIVED BY SISTER.

The dead woman leaves no husband and no children. She is survived by an only sister, Mrs. Marie A. Tolson, who has been her constant companion in the declining years of her life. But throughout the length and breadth of the county and in many parts of California are pioneer families who still remember the young girl of the "days of gold" and will attend the last rites to pay her a token of marked respect.

The requiem high mass, which will be said in her honor by the Rev. Father Francis Garvey, will be held over, which formed a portion of the ancestral estates of the Peralta family. The funeral cortège will pass along streets over which Peralta cattle grazed long before the discovery of gold. And the last resting place, which Ivey will occupy in the family plot at St. Mary's cemetery, will be beneath earth that felt the imprint of her grandfather's heel.

IN ADLAND' HERE ON MONDAY NIGHT

And then it all turned out to be a joke. The Russian embassy denied that Tatiana was on the Tenyo Maru. Mrs. Curver said too much publicity and a sea full of German spies had prevented the Duchess from coming, and society gulped down its disappointment and gave up the search.

Reviewing the events which culminated on the morning of July 12 with the roundup of the striking miners, the commission declares that the miners originally struck without sufficient cause, and that this was due to a lack of machinery for peaceful adjustment of their demands. The machinery for settling future disputes has been supplied, the commission said.

The deportation was arranged at a meeting on the night of July 11 when managers and officials of the copper companies were present, and from July 12 until late in August, the report declares, a body of men amounting to a vigilance committee were arrested and interfered with in answering the calls of the draft board, the commission found, and it asks the President to lay all evidence indicating obstruction of the draft before the attorney-general.

CARS SLIP, CRASH

Contractors for the two branch libraries that represent the last of the four for which $35,000 each was donated by Andrew Carnegie, were awarded last night by the library board. The successful bidders are Oakland men.

The contract for the general construction was awarded to R. W. Littlefield for $7,449. Robert Datzel Jr. was awarded the contracts for the heating and ventilation at $4388, and for the plumbing at $3597. King's Electrical Construction Company was awarded the contract for the electrical work, the bid being $3911.29.

In awarding the general contract the board left to the specifiers the contracts for fireplaces and the masons, thus saving

Construction on these buildings will be started at once. The Alden branch will be erected on a corner at Fifty-second and Telegraph and the Golden Gate at Fifty-sixth and San Leandro. The Alden branch is completed and what is known as the Twenty-fourth avenue branch is nearing completion.

REPORT RAPS DEPORTATION OF MINERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Distinguished service in the war hospitals of France has won a signal honor for Miss Elsie de Wolfe of San Francisco. Paris despatched today stated that Miss de Wolfe was mentioned in the official journal as one of the recipients of the silver medal conferred for devoted and heroic work.

Miss de Wolfe entered the hospital service two years ago and brief reports received from time to time by relatives here indicated that she was making a record for exceptional work.

The commission recently completed several weeks' investigation of the deportation of approximately 1,200 miners from the vicinity of Bisbee, Arizona, and last night the similar attempt to kill another nearly a month ago.

Descriptions secured by the police commissioners them that the slayer of Albert Peck and Timothy Grace in the Norden Hotel is the same man who seriously injured the threat of Stanley Dixon of Los Angeles in a lonely portion of Golden Gate Park, October 27. The Dixon assailant was known as John Sullivan, alias Solomon, of Los Angeles. He escaped a dragnet thrown out for his capture, following his return to the city.

Miss de Wolfe is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Edgar de Wolfe of this city, an interior decorator, and herself has won recognition in that form of art before going to France.

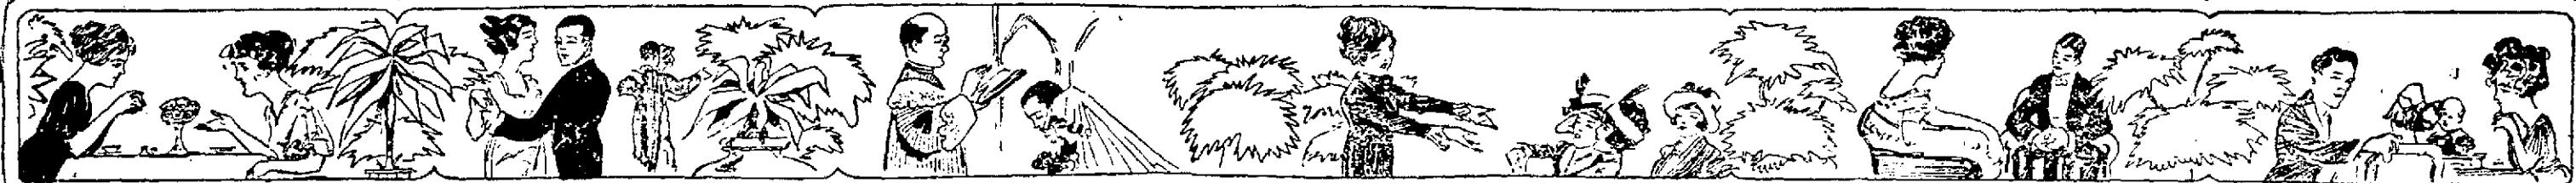

Others mentioned in the description as having received medals were the Duchesse de Choiseul, formerly Claire Couder of New York, and the Marquise de Chambrun, formerly Margaret Rivers Nichols of New York.

DRAFTING OBSTRUCTED.

In the findings of fact the report set forth that none of the evidence showed the deportations either legal or justified. Further, the commission found that while a sheriff and posse were rounding up the miners, telephone wires were interfered with and a censorship was established so that no news could reach the outside world. It is this phase which is to be laid before the Interstate Commerce Commission. After the deportations men attempted to return to the country for examination under the draft were arrested and interfered with in answering the calls of the draft board, the commission found, and it asks the President to lay all evidence indicating obstruction of the draft before the attorney-general.

POWER IS USURPED.

Reviewing the events which culminated on the morning of July 12 with the roundup of the striking miners, the commission declares that the miners originally struck without sufficient cause, and that this was due to a lack of machinery for peaceful adjustment

December is to be a bride's month this year, for before the new Year arrives nearly all of the brides-elect of this season will have exchanged their nuptial vows. The transferring of troops from one part of the country to another has been the reason for many of the advanced wedding dates. One just named is that of Miss Helen Margaret Olds, daughter of Mrs. A. C. Olds of Vernon Heights, and Lieutenant Samuel James Ogilvie of Fort Baker, the date set for Saturday, December 22. Rev. George G. Eldridge of St. John's Presbyterian church in Berkeley is to read the ceremony in that edifice at high noon, the guest list to be limited to the most intimate friends of the family and relatives.

Orders from Washington received within the past few days by fellow officers, have resulted in a number being transferred to other forts, so that there is a possibility that the present plans for the wedding may be changed, otherwise the marriage will be solemnized as scheduled.

Miss Olds has been sharing many of the pretty social compliments paid the brides-elect of her set this winter. Whether Miss Olds will have a bridal party at her wedding is as yet undecided. Lieutenant Ogilvie is a former University of California man and the son of Mrs. R. C. Ogilvie.

To friends of the family, Mrs. Agnes M. Morgans of East Oakland has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Aileen A. Morgans, and C. Roy Bibber of Concord. The Morgans family is an old one in Oakland, the bride-elect's father, the late M. P. Morgans, having been a prominent mining man of California.

Miss Morgans is a graduate of the Fremont high school and has many friends in the bay section to whom the announcement of her betrothal will come as a pleasant surprise.

C. Roy Bibber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Bibber of Concord. The recent illness of his mother was the reason for his furlough of the past week, as he is stationed at San Diego. Until more definite plans are known, the couple will not set the date of their marriage. Before his entrance into the army, Bibber was identified with the Oakland Bank of Savings.

The bazaar which Miss Helen Stanford was to have given at the home of her mother, Mrs. Josiah Stanford, Saturday, December 8, has been postponed until December 15, as alterations are being made upon the Stanford home and it will not be in readiness for the event until that date. Little Miss Stanford is a student at Miss Ransom's school in Piedmont and with a group of her little friends has planned this bazaar where countless pretty Christmas novelties will be sold. The proceeds will be given to the fund to aid the little children and babies of Belmont.

Thanksgiving day "Wildwood," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Havens, was the setting for a lovely dinner, about which were grouped friends and other members of the family. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Havens, Miss Allene Edoff, Frank Edoff, Miss Clair Bon and Miss Laura Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Breed are to give a delightful dancing party this evening for their daughter, Miss Florence Breed, when they will entertain 100 of the school set at their home at Kings Avenue and Parrott, Piedmont. The home will be beautifully arranged in bright red berries, flags of the allies and golden chrysanthemums. Assisting Miss Breed to receive her friends will be Miss Elizabeth Moore, Miss Virginia Smith, Miss Laura Miller and Miss Hope Sommerset.

Among those who will be guests this evening are Miss Esther Munson, Miss Adelaide Griffith of San Francisco, Miss Celia Errington, Miss Jane Stow, Miss Esther Robbins, Miss Winifred Brown, Miss Jane Wintermute, Miss Marjorie Wintermute, Miss Elizabeth Allard, Miss Virginia Crane, Miss Dorothy Cawston, Miss Sally Long, Miss Frances Brown, Miss Agnes von Adelung, Miss Betty Dow, Miss Helen Dunn.

Mrs. Arthur Breed has as her house guest her sister, Mrs. Charles Barnard, who now makes her home in Ventura. Mrs. Barnard was a guest at the family gathering Thanksgiving day at the Breed home. She will remain for several weeks as the guest of her sister in Piedmont.

Mrs. George Doubleday, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. James K. Moffitt in Piedmont, will leave tomorrow for her home in New York. Mrs. Doubleday visited for a time with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Moffitt, across the bay. She has been delightfully entertained throughout her visit here, and it is a disappointment to her friends that she was not able to lengthen her stay in the west.

The second week in this month Mrs. Love D. Filius and her daughters, Marion and Ruth, are expected to return from New York, where they have been for the past two months. They will reopen their home in Piedmont.

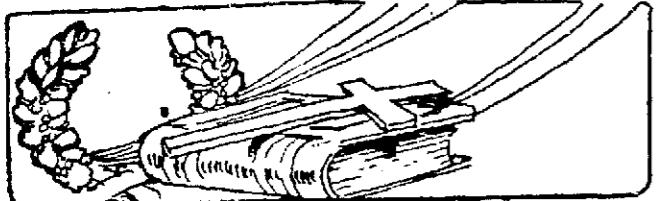

Intimate friends of Mrs. Fritz Henshaw were invited by the hostess yesterday to a knitting tea, the guests including the members of a small club that has given up bridge and other diversions in order to knit for soldiers. Among the guests were Mrs. Walter Perkins, Mrs. Thomas Hogan Jr., Mrs. Henry E. Jackson, Mrs. Robert Sharon, Mrs. Harry Brightman, Miss Marian McDaniels, Mrs. Joseph Killian, Mrs. Joseph F. Hunt, Miss Marguerite Black and Miss Alfreda Wright.

Mrs. Wallace Alexander, Mrs. Oscar F. Long, Mrs. Clifford Walker, Mrs. James K. Moffitt Jr., Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. Herbert Hamilton Brown and Mrs. William Magee were among the guests at the luncheon given yesterday at the Franciscan Club by Mrs. Willis Walker of Minneapolis. Mrs. Walker entertained for Mrs. Harold Aver of Pasadena, whose two daughters, the Misses Alice and Anne Aver, are attending school in Piedmont. The two girls are very much admired, both having identical features but differing in coloring, one a blonde the other a blonde type. The appointments for the luncheon yesterday were in tones of the prompt and positive action of this simple, inexpensive home-made remedy in quickly healing the inflamed or swollen membranes of the throat, chest or bronchial tubes and breaking up tight coughs, has caused it to be used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Under the healing, soothing influence, the soreness, sore, puffed, swollen, breathing becomes easier, tighter, soothed, throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth), into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. You then have a full pint—a family supply—of a much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly. The children love it, pleasant taste.

GO to CHRISTIAN Sunday

Edited by S. M. BURRITT

LECTURER HEARD

Dr. C. F. Wimbler of Los Angeles is delivering a series of lectures on "Health and Religion" at First Christian Church. Dr. Wimbler says: "I am here to give you the benefit of years of exhaustive study in the realm of Christian healing. These lectures are not simply the presentation of theories, they are the results of actual healing which I have seen and are used in healing in this country today. The church of Jesus Christ is dedicated to the truth to the people, and we have failed to do that. Denial of the truth is the most dangerous thing. These all have a basis of truth, mixed with much religious error, and, insofar as they are successful in healing, the Orthodox church can and ought to heal. I am here to reveal to the church the nature of the disease, and to tell you how to heal others and other things."

Dr. Wimbler will speak tonight on the theme: "The Psychology and Cure of Fear." Tomorrow at 10:30 a. m., "How to Heal and Help Ourselves and Others." At 7:30 p. m., "How to Realize the Best in One's Life."

These lectures are open to the public, undenominational and startling in their content and promise.

BERKELEY FIRST.

Dr. L. A. McEfee of First Presbyterian church, Dana and Channing, Berkeley, continues his Sunday morning series of sermons on Philippians, the theme for Sunday morning being "The Attainment of Christian Perfection." The theme of the evening sermon is "The Man Who Was Faithful as God's Helper."

The special music for the Sunday morning service will be as follows: Organ, "Evening Idyl" (Boehm); Processional, "March of the Angels"; organ, "Gloria Patri"; (after Spanish psalmody (Calkin); anthem, "With Faith O Lord in Thee" (Garrett); and a solo by a boy soprano, Master Gordon Wilson, "Lead Kindly Light" (Dykes). George N. Calfee, director of music.

AUTUMN MUSICAL.

The choir of the Fruitvale Avenue Christian Church offers a special sacred Thanksgiving concert tomorrow evening under the direction of Dr. R. E. Young, minister of the church, who will be remembered by Oakland people as the director of music of the State Sunday school convention last May.

This is the first of a series of sacred concerts to be rendered by the choir during the coming month. Anthems, solos and male quartet selections will comprise the program. The singers will be assisted by Miss Gladys Washburn, cellist. The public is invited.

Y. P. U. WORK.

The State Association of Y. P. U. are making a special effort to boost Junior and Intermediate work in California, and are asking that every local association make a superintendent to co-operate and take definite charge of local work. They feel that not enough emphasis has been placed upon this most important work. The Bay Association already has a most efficient Superintendent, Mrs. Irene Lorimer, who will aid, and has already done a great work.

TENTH AVENUE.

The Tenth Avenue Barbers, Roy Bryant, president, have arranged to use the Home Club gymnasium on Fourth avenue, near Twenty-ninth street, every Thursday evening from 10:30 to 11:30 p. m., for the use of it and have full privileges, with shower baths, equipment. The boys are planning to begin next Thursday to have some big meetings there every week.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Last Tuesday evening the Christian Endeavorers of the First Congregational of Alameda gave aревived dinner in honor of Miss Frances Loring, their thirty-five year old woman, who gathered and enjoyed good things to eat and round table talk. ## EDITOR'S CHAT

The Plymouth Seniors put one over on Berkeley First Congregational, but it's to 21. Plymouth should tackle First Oakland "U. B. C's" and learn how to play.

There are 22 women in the parishes of California and 3317 men. See also, "Answers to the Double Code of morals?" 3517 parts of God's great machine.

In the first meeting of the year, the M. E. Mechanics' aids.

It is estimated that 75% of the young people in the Christian Endeavor Society of California are in good to war.

It is possible that the boys of First M. E. are going to stand still while Mrs. Earle Member organizes the girls?

It will be absolutely slackening for any Baraca or Philadephia to be absent Monday night with such important officer as president to elect.

BERKELEY FIRST.
Dr. L. A. McEfee of First Presbyterian church, Dana and Channing, Berkeley, continues his Sunday morning series of sermons on Philippians, the theme for Sunday morning being "The Attainment of Christian Perfection." The theme of the evening sermon is "The Man Who Was Faithful as God's Helper."

The special music for the Sunday morning service will be as follows: Organ, "Evening Idyl" (Boehm); Processional, "March of the Angels"; organ, "Gloria Patri"; (after Spanish psalmody (Calkin); anthem, "With Faith O Lord in Thee" (Garrett); and a solo by a boy soprano, Master Gordon Wilson, "Lead Kindly Light" (Dykes). George N. Calfee, director of music.

AUTUMN MUSICAL.

The choir of the Fruitvale Avenue Christian Church offers a special sacred Thanksgiving concert tomorrow evening under the direction of Dr. R. E. Young, minister of the church, who will be remembered by Oakland people as the director of music of the State Sunday school convention last May.

This is the first of a series of sacred concerts to be rendered by the choir during the coming month. Anthems, solos and male quartet selections will comprise the program. The singers will be assisted by Miss Gladys Washburn, cellist. The public is invited.

Y. P. U. WORK.
The State Association of Y. P. U. are making a special effort to boost Junior and Intermediate work in California, and are asking that every local association make a superintendent to co-operate and take definite charge of local work. They feel that not enough emphasis has been placed upon this most important work. The Bay Association already has a most efficient Superintendent, Mrs. Irene Lorimer, who will aid, and has already done a great work.

NEAR RIOT AT MELROSE RECALL MEET

A near riot occurred at Melrose hall in East Oakland last night when Davis sympathizers attempted to break up a meeting arranged in behalf of David C. Dutton, candidate for mayor in the recall fight. Before the trouble was over there was a bout at fistfights, and according to the Dutton speakers, several women who attempted to attend the meeting had been insulted by street ruffians.

Early in the evening opponents of the recall stationed themselves near the hall and began informing all those who went to attend that the meeting had been postponed. When those in charge of the gathering arrived and found that many people had been turned away, there was a hot argument.

One of those who had been active in turning people from the meeting displayed a deputy sheriff's badge, it is said, and made some slurring remarks about a woman who started to enter the hall.

A Dutton supporter landed a stiletto on the jaw of the man who had made the insulting remark, and the badge-wearer was knocked out into the street. The alteration spread to the crowd, and the meeting was finally broken up by a gang of men who kept going through the crowd and starting trouble with those who attempted to enter the hall.

U. C. OFFERS NEW NURSES' COURSE

BERKELEY, Dec. 1.—Nursing as a profession for women is now to be further recognized and dignified by the University of California. The "wise woman" and the amateur nurse with a stock of old wives' notions did well enough in the old days when the physician himself was ignorant of modern scientific medicine and surgery, demand scientifically trained nurses. For some years the University of California has conducted a training course for nurses in the University Hospital. With the completion of the spacious new 220-bed fireproof hospital just erected in San Francisco for the University of California Medical School through the gift of the Standard American Oil Company, the university is now going to offer opportunity for higher professional training for nurses.

Candidates for this training will spend two years in advanced courses at Berkeley, culminating in the junior certificate; then a third year at Berkeley in further study of scientific subjects followed by two additional years of training for nurses in the University Hospital.

The suit to enjoin the Standard American Dredging Company from further pumping on account of danger of similar breaks was continued for a week.

FAVOR TAX FOR FIRE PROTECTION

RICHMOND, Dec. 1.—The trustees of El Cerrito last night discussed ways and means for securing money for improvements needed for the town. Among these is fire protection. The income tax is the present rate, and the trustees are anxious for fire protection.

Trustees Larsen and Sandvich, who are the members of the fire committee, reported that they were working on the fire protection bill.

"I am in favor of having a special tax," said Trustee Sandvich, "to get the things this city needs. I believe the people of this city are for it, and suggest that we meet the bill as soon as possible.

A special tax of 75 cents would not cause a hardship on any body, but it would provide the money we need."

Arrangements are being made for the El Cerrito football team to play another eleven at Pasadena on New Year's Day. The team is also looking for a match with the Marine team from Mare Island. The trip to Pasadena will probably be made under direction of Captain T. G. Cook, camp athletic director and officer of the post.

KAHN PAYS TRIBUTE.

Congressman Julius Kahn, speaking at Tacoma last night, paid high tribute to the efficiency of army training in whipping men into shape.

"It is a lesson to the country in favor of universal military training," he said.

"If the boys should have this training in the future, we may be in a different position when we go into another war."

TROOPS IN FRANCE.

The Rainbow Division of American troops also have arrived safely in France. It is composed of National Guard units representing thirty-three States, including California. According to official announcement the last transport-load of the division left an Atlantic port on October 15, six weeks ago, so it was in France when General Siber cabled his Thanksgiving statement that the transportation of troops to France had been accomplished without the loss of a single man.

Three large movements of troops to Europe have been made since we entered the war. The first was the regular army division which General Pershing accompanied, the second was the New England division, and now the arrival of the Rainbow division is confirmed. In the meantime various smaller contingents have been taken over, about which there has been no special mention.

Speculation as to how many troops we have in France is justified, but it must remain largely speculation. Secretary of War Baker authorized a few days ago a statement on the progress being made in sending troops to Europe. He said simply that the number of troops actually transported overseas was greater than the government expected to have there at this time. This is really the important thing—getting the troops there according to schedule and without losses. Mr. Baker says the arrangements for tonnage and for troop transportation had been worked out in advance, that we are ahead of the schedule and that there is no question of too few or too many ships.

The TRIBUNE will not suggest that the university authorities have gone into politics and have developed a sudden sympathy for the real estate boosters and the climate retailers of the southern part of the State, nor that they have a grudge against the good people of this neighborhood. It is rather inclined to believe that some subordinate's skull at Berkeley is occupied by whale blubber instead of brains. However, one presumption may be as reasonable as the other.

But why should a State university attaché suggest that one should seek sunshine in Southern California? What is the motive of the stupid, false intimation?

Records have been kept of the climate of Oakland, and while we do not have before us those of Berkeley "township" (ride Benjamin Ide Wheeler), we venture they are practically identical with those of the university campus and generally with the San Francisco bay district.

These records compare with those of Los Angeles as follows:

	Los Angeles	Oakland
Clear days	193	160
Fair days	107	99
Cloudy days	66	107

For the months of June, July and August, 1916:

	Los Angeles	Oakland
Clear days	58	49
Fair days	33	27
Cloudy	1	16

It will be observed that in the three months in which the summer session is held this district enjoyed 76 cloudless days and 16 on which the sun was obscured by the bracing sea mist quite favorable conditions for summer session attendance.

We may admit that Los Angeles has a little the better of us in sunshine, but not that she has a more enjoyable and healthful climate. And we shall indulge in no comparisons to the discredit of Los Angeles; for instance, there will be no reference here to the amount of physical energy wasted in resisting the summer heat of the city of sunshine, nor to inroads upon the moral powers in resisting the lure of Venice beach in that season when fair models display the various fashions in undress.

The more important thing would seem to be an explanation from the university authorities as to what courses of instruction are to be omitted from the summer session at Berkeley in order to increase the drawing power of Los Angeles, and how it came about that the university enlisted in the publicity propaganda of Los Angeles at the calculated expense of other communities.

(From the Bakersfield Californian)
The OAKLAND TRIBUNE is about to occupy its new six-story home a house properly equipped and conveniently arranged for the work of a metropolitan newspaper. The new structure is at the corner of Thirteenth and Franklin streets, and it will house one of the most complete newspaper plants in the country.

Oakland's growth since the San Francisco disaster has been little short of marvelous, but its progress has not been more marked than that of The TRIBUNE, which has justly come to be recognized as one of the leading papers of the coast.

With all its manifold advantages, Oakland has had no better advertisement than The TRIBUNE, which every page and issue tell the story of the growth and prosperity of the city in which it is published.

Palo Alto. They have been able to observe in the course of the last three months that a "camp of honor" is wholly unsatisfactory.

THE UNIVERSITY AS A BOOSTER.

From the University of California administration staff at Berkeley comes a publicity circular of unique interest. THE TRIBUNE presumes that all newspapers in Northern California have received a copy. It is done on the mimeograph, and the sloven manner of punctuation, capitalizing and phrasing, considered in connection with the known source of it, indicates that it was designed for the general consumption of newspapers.

Although the heading on the circular does not frankly so indicate, it is all about a great boom in education in Los Angeles. It starts off thus:

"Next summer will see the novel change that San Francisco and Berkeley people can go to Los Angeles to enroll in the University of California summer session."

Then follows a fulsome description of the six weeks' summer session of the university to be held in Los Angeles from June 24 to August 3, the courses which will be taught, the distinguished educators that have been engaged as instructors, and the statement that "many courses will be given which will not be obtainable in Berkeley." However, it is announced that there will be a summer session at Berkeley as usual."

But the most amazing bit of "information" to come from the great University of California is contained in the following extract from this official publicity statement:

"People of the San Francisco bay region who prefer in their vacation time to seek sunshine will doubtless welcome the opportunity of attending a summer session of the university in Southern California."

Perhaps it is proper to sketch briefly a bit of political history as an aid to comprehension of the above. Los Angeles promoters have for a long time tried to bring about the establishment of a summer session of the State University in the southern city. They drove at the university authorities directly and through the State legislature, and adopted every other means for inducing the State University to establish a summer session in Los Angeles. Finally they succeeded and the regents of the university recently took formal action in the matter. All of which seems to have been entirely proper.

This, however, only helps to explain how Los Angeles gets a summer session; it does not shed any light on the action of the university authorities in recommending residents of the San Francisco bay district to attend the Los Angeles summer session—"in their vacation time to seek sunshine."

The TRIBUNE will not suggest that the university authorities have gone into politics and have developed a sudden sympathy for the real estate boosters and the climate retailers of the southern part of the State, nor that they have a grudge against the good people of this neighborhood. It is rather inclined to believe that some subordinate's skull at Berkeley is occupied by whale blubber instead of brains. However, one presumption may be as reasonable as the other.

But why should a State university attaché suggest that one should seek sunshine in Southern California? What is the motive of the stupid, false intimation?

Records have been kept of the climate of Oakland, and while we do not have before us those of Berkeley "township" (ride Benjamin Ide Wheeler), we venture they are practically identical with those of the university campus and generally with the San Francisco bay district.

These records compare with those of Los Angeles as follows:

	Los Angeles	Oakland
Clear days	193	160
Fair days	107	99
Cloudy days	66	107

NOTES and COMMENT

The high cost of turkey has undoubtedly discouraged that sort of perfunctory charity that invests in a bird, sends it off to a destination where it may not be deserved, and then complacently considers a philanthropic duty done.

How far the Sunday newspaper has come in forty-two years may be gathered from a passage in the "Story of the New York Sun." The first Sunday edition of that paper was issued in 1875. It was originally intended to be of four pages, the same as the regular edition; but an unexpected avalanche of two pages of advertising made it necessary to increase it to eight. There was an apologetic editorial note explaining this, and ending with the hope that readers of the paper would "find it no less interesting than usual."

It has not been observed, in the considerable menu literature afloat Thanksgiving Day, that whale meat cut a very extensive figure, notwithstanding the turkey's high roast.

The correspondent who excoriates another and specifically warns the editor not to use his name is familiar in all newspaper offices. The difficulty of impressing upon him the bad ethics of such tactics is also understood. And his umbrage when he is denied permission to anonymously lambast his personal enemy is part of the experience.

The Seattle mayor says he will run again. There seems no relief for a city once it is stricken with the mayoralty.

An alien enemy zone established on the waterfront is sure to produce unexpected results. For one thing, it will disclose that many of the men who go down to the sea in ships and who work about shipping are foreign born, and that a great percentage of them have not been naturalized.

Kings and representatives of three Scandinavian nations are in conference. They may see that man survives the grave—that there are other lives? More strange, O friend, that we should ever rise.

BROKER SAYS MEANS WAS HUN AGENT

COURTHOUSE, CONCORD, N. C., Dec. 1.—Germany's propaganda in America sprang up in a new and unexpected place. It came to light in rural Cabarrus County in North Carolina.

Gaston B. Means, on trial here for the murder of Mrs. Maud A. King, was an agent of Germany in America, according to evidence presented here today.

Backed by German information, Means operated on the stock exchange with Mrs. King's money, the state contends.

John R. Todd, a Chicago broker, testified that "Means had told him of a commercial secret of Germany. Means claimed knowledge of the terms of the German chancellor's speech, based speculations upon this knowledge, Todd declared.

Todd also stated that Means offered the Hamburg-American company as a reference and exhibited the private telephone number of Captain Bay-Ed to substantiate his claim of connection with the German government.

Todd attempted to offer evidence tending to show that Means told him on June 29 of German's U-boat decree of February 1. The court ruled this testimony out.

TO WORK SUGAR

Thousands of Chinese coolies on their way to work in the sugar plantations of Cuba will soon pass through San Francisco, Oakland, carried under bond to insure against escapes during the transit through the United States. Scarcity of labor in the Island has made necessary a special lifting of the Chinese exclusion law of Cuba in order that the amount of land devoted to sugar raising shall not be decreased. The Chinese are to be imported under a five-year contract and will be returned to their native land at the end of that time.

W. C. Johnson, representing a syndicate of sugar planters, has named F. E. Connor & Son, of 16 California Street, San Francisco, local agents for one group of planters who will require from 5,000 to 10,000 Chinese. The cost of transporting the coolies from the home ports to Havana will be $127 each. The Cuban government will allow a maximum of 200,000 to come, but it is not probable that even half that number will be actually brought over.

COST STUPENDOUS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—It would bankrupt 1500 American millionaires to put the people of devastated Northern France in mental and physical shape to take care of themselves.

This was learned today from Herbert Hoover and the American Red Cross. The Red Cross announced that it has appropriated $100,000 to start the reconstruction of Northern France's 3,000,000 ruined citizens, and that the cost of the work will cost not less than $1,500,000,000.

S. F. LABOR COUNCIL DUSTS PRESIDENT

WAREHOUSES CAN INCREASE RATES

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—The San Francisco Labor Council last night legislated A. W. Brouillet, its president, out of office by a vote of 55 to 68 and refused to reinstate him as a delegate to the central labor body. His successor will be elected next Friday evening. The action of the council may be appealed to the American Federation of Labor, according to minority members.

Todd also stated that Means offered the Hamburg-American company as a reference and exhibited the private telephone number of Captain Bay-Ed to substantiate his claim of connection with the German government.

Todd attempted to offer evidence tending to show that Means told him on June 29 of German's U-boat decree of February 1. The court ruled this testimony out.

The charges against Brouillet arose in connection with statements he is alleged to have made at a recent convention of the State Federation of Labor. The delegation had knowledge of the murders committed in the Proprietary Day bomb disaster, July 29, 1916.
